

I think it is very sad that local ABC stations are not showing "Saving Private Ryan" because they are afraid of the penalty laid down by the FCC. Anyone offended by this movie must not know what our country is doing in Iraq right now, at least the war in the movie had a purpose.